HIGH'S CAVALRY.—We learn that the cavalry of Sheriff High has been doing good service recently. A portion of his company has been down in Harnett county, and brought up five deserters of two years standing. One of them was discovered in his sideboard. He says they have often searched his house for him, while he was securely locked up in the same place. A facetious member of the company remarked to him that he was a fool to hide in the sideboard during Christmas, for he might have known the boys would search there for a drum, and find him.

CHRISTMAS, with the exception of some few lingering headaches, &c., is over. White folks, generally, have resumed their labors, and darkies are glorying in a "few more days" before hiring time. To say that Christmas has been decidedly dull in Raleigh, would only be to say what all know, and therefore we will not say it. It has been raining some, but not much; a little cold, but not much; is muddy some, but not much; and we have all managed to get something to eat, but not much, for which of paper we have had to pay a good deal, but of money not much.

SHEEP SALE.—On yesterday Messrs. Creech & Litchford, Auctioneers, sold 250 head of sheep belonging to the Government, at an average of about $22 a head. We learn they were so poor they would not even do to feed soldiers upon, and that Quartermasters could not have obtained suet enough from them to pay for pulling it out. We are glad to learn they were not purchased by any of our butchers. We were told the wool would not pay for pulling the cockleburs out of it, and that the bones had already rendered the skins holy.

COL. WHITFORD.—We regret to learn that in the action with the enemy on the Roanoke, Col. J. N. Whitford was severely wounded. One of his arms was struck with a grape shot and both bones are said to be broken. It is feared amputation will be necessary. Col. W. is a gallant officer and an amiable gentleman, and we sincerely trust that his arm may be saved.

ALMOST AN ITEM.—A large bay horse, attached to a buggy, made an attempt to run away on Fayetteville street yesterday, but a number of [illegible] prevented.

SNOW.—There was a heavy fall of snow in the mountains on the night of the 21st.

THE HOME GUARD.—The Asheville News of the 22d says:

Col. Kirk, with his own command and the 8th Tennessee, was at the Warm Springs last week. [illegible] as we can learn, retires this side of that point. As usual, he levied a heavy tax on all citizens living within his reach. Mr. Rumbough, proprietor of the Springs lost a wagon and team and a negro boy; Mrs Garrett, one mile below the Springs, was also a heavy sufferer. Wm. P. Blair was captured, with the understanding that he would be taken to Knoxville. Mr. Blair is a quiet citizen, and we do not understand what is to be gained to either party by the capture of non-combatant citizens engaged in the ordinary avocations of life. It is a practice not warranted by the rules of civilized warfare, and from which no conceivable advantage is to be derived. It should be discontinued.

When last heard from Col. Kirk was encamped at Paint Rock, five miles below the Springs. He has probably had sound reasons for "changing his base" before now.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH. THURSDAY. DEC. 29. 1864. NO. 41.

The News also says:

"Many citizens of Western North Carolina, who went off to the enemy a year or two since, have voluntarily returned, and given pledges for their future loyalty and good conduct. Some of them, we learn, express themselves very emphatically as satisfied with their experience in the Yankee service. It is not, they say, the feast to which they were invited, and henceforth they are with the Confederacy for weal or woe."

SUPREME COURT.—Opinions have been delivered in the following cases:

BY PEARSON, C. J. In State v. Elack, a slave from Granville, no error. In State v. Howie, from Mecklenburg, no error. In Caldwell v. Cowan, in equity, from Rowan, defendants entitled as next of kin.

BY BATTLE, J. In Wilson v. Stafford, in equity, from Forsyth, directing decree for plaintiff. In Horah v. Horah, in equity, from Rowan.—In Bringle's case of (habeas corpus) affirming the decision of Judge Heath.

BY MANLY, J. In State v. Dick, a slave from Iredell, error. In State v. Bryson, from Henderson, no error. In McCracken v. Love, in equity, from Haywood, demurer overruled.

THE NEW LAW AGAINST DISTILLING.

An act to amend an act ratified on the 17th day of December, 1862, "entitled an act to prohibit the distillation of Spirituous liquors.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the 1st day of January 1865, the penalties imposed in the first section of said act, for the distillation of spirituous liquors out of any corn, wheat, and other articles in said act enumerated, except chinese sugar cane, shall also apply and extend to the fermenting and brewing of any of said articles, for the purpose of making or manufacturing beer or any other malt liquor for sale; and the like penalties that apply and extend to any person or persons fermenting or brewing any honey for a like purpose.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That any person or persons using a still or stills, or brewery of vats, or any kind of machinery, or contrivance for brewing or distilling, enclosed in a building, house, or in any other way, shall upon the demand of three Justices of the Peace of his county, expose to their inspection a view of his or their building, house, still, or brewry, vats, machinery or other contrivances of any kind, for brewing or distilling; and a refusal on the part of the owner, owners or agents to allow such inspection shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That any person or persons offending against the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a distinct offence for every day or piece of a day, in which he or they shall be so offending.

Read three times and ratified in General Assembly, this 17th day of December, A. D. 1864.

PERSONS wanting Pamphlets, Handbills, Circulars, Catalogues, Books, or other work in the printing line done, can be accommodated at the PROGRESS OFFICE.

WE have about a dozen reams fine white book paper on hand, which we should be pleased to work up for any one having such work to do.

BUSINESS MEN will consult their own interest by advertising in the PROGRESS.

A FEW IMPORTANT FACTS

IN REGARD TO

THE "SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS."

1. THEY ARE PREPARED FROM THE BEST quality of Medicine by the discoverer, now an aged Minister of the Gospel, and are safe.

2. They have been known for years and tested by thousands.

3. Five hundred persons are known to have been cured by them.

4. They are not recommended by the proprietor for everything, but only for diseases which arise from disordered livers.

5. Directions and certificates accompany each box and these certificates are from well known and most respectable individuals.

6. Correspondents recommend them as good for Liver Disease, Chills and Fevers, Pneumonia, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bilious Fevers, Bilious Rheumatism, Worms, Pleurisy, Bronchitis, &c.

7. Several gentlemen state that the use of these Pills has been to them an annual saving of from $100 to $200; they are the best plantation medicine ever offered to the public.

8. Some Physicians of the highest standing prescribe them to their patients, and hundreds of boxes have been sold to regular practitioners.

9. During the last quarter 2,000 boxes have been sold to Druggist, one in South Carolina, and one in North Carolina—and some time ago over 3,700 boxes were ordered by Druggists in one town in Virginia.

Price, $3 a box. For $30 a dozen boxes will be sent to any address. A very liberal discount to Druggists and country merchants. Cash (new currency) to accompany orders.

Business Notice.—The expenses attending the publication of the PROGRESS are enormous and have to be paid promptly, and we must do a cash business or none at all. We must demand cash from all save those business men of the city who have accounts with the office, and parties at a distance are expected to remit promptly when bills are sent. We have no time to collect bills and don't want to make any charges. There never was a better time to pay debts than the present, and all who owe us are requested and expected to pay at once.

How to Send us Money.—Never send by mail when you can send by Express. All money sent by express at our expense. Those sending us money by mail must do so at their own risk.

Any of our friends receiving important news from the army by private letter or telegrams, will confer a great favor on us by sending or leaving them at this office for our use.

Thirty cents for Rags.—Thirty cents a pound will be paid for all clean Cotton an Linen rags delivered at the Progress office.

The Commissioners respectfully suggest that if it be found practical, the producer should be allowed to retain a fourth part of their surplus, to be sold at market rates, to pay for their necessary plantation supplies, which they have to purchase at high market prices. They earnestly call upon the farmers to bring forward their corn now so necessary to the support of the army in their immediate front, and which alone will prevent the loss to the enemy, of all their crops, stock, negroes, &c., &c. The commissioners would also recommend that the impressment should be universal and uniform, leaving out no one.

For the information of all persons concerned, we publish the following instructions, with the hope that they will be strictly obeyed.

"No officer, or agent, shall impress the necessary supplies which any person may have for the consumption of himself, his family, employees, slaves, or to carry on his ordinary mechanical, manufacturing or agricultural employments."

The next meeting of the Board will be held in the Senate Chamber, in the City of Raleigh, on Monday, the 6th day of February next, unless sooner changed. Impressing agents must furnish good and satisfactory reasons for disapprovals on appeals, or the award of local appraisers will be approved. All communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board, Raleigh, N C.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, DEC. 29, 1864.

Sherman says that he gathered seven thousand able-bodied negroes on the march from Atlanta to Savannah, and lost on the march not exceeding one thousand of his own men. So here he has a clear gain of six thousand, for of course he will at once put arms in the hands of the negroes. And notwithstanding all we have heard from the Georgia papers about Hardee hanging on the flanks of the army during the march, Sherman tells us he did not lose a single wagon! The fact is the up-rising in Georgia is pretty much the same as in Tennessee, with this difference: Georgia has not got the men; having sent them to the field under the conscript law, while Tennessee has the men but they have no disposition to encounter the enemy. Hood has been driven away from Nashville and almost out of Tennessee, while Sherman holds Savannah, with a large army, with which he can operate against the interior with pleasure; and neither Tennessee or Georgia have any more men to put into the field. This is no mythical supposition, but a fact that has been established by the operations of the last few months. How and when, then, shall we free those two States from the ravages of the foe? Who will, who can answer?

The situation in Georgia and Tennessee is sad to contemplate, not so much on account of what has been done or reverses that have been encountered, as the sad reflection that many of the people, if not friendly to the invaders, are indifferent as to results. We were promised that Sherman should be whipped and swallowed up, and that Hood would make a triumphal march to the Ohio, but in the actual results we have only defeat, demoralization and ruin. Would that some of the spirit, power, discipline, vigor and victory that has characterized Gen. Lee's glorious band of veterans in the Army of Northern Virginia, could be transferred to the South and West. Hood's army is sadly depleted, and we can only hope that a shattered remnant may be saved; while Sherman is no doubt preparing, for some new movement that will be characterized with all the boldness and vigor of his former campaigns. What is to be the end of all this God only knows, but certainly the present situation of military affairs does not promise fair for those overtures of peace that we have been assured would be made by the North in the Spring.

We trust that victories may yet be achieved on our own coast and in Virginia that may serve to dispel the gloom of recent reverses, and give our people renewed confidence and increased hope with the coming of Spring.

GOV. VANCE'S INAUGURAL.

His Excellency, Z. B. VANCE, was inaugurated for a second term on Thursday last, on which occasion he made the following address:

FELLOW CITIZENS: Two years ago I was inaugurated Chief Magistrate of our honored State in the midst of war and all its attending confusion. I was called from the army, untried, and untrammelled by pledges or promises, to this responsible and embarrassing position. The generous confidence of my countrymen took for granted my abilities and my patriotism. For my elected term, I have gone in and out before them, in the sessions and faithful performance of my imposed duties, during such circumstances of trial as none of my predecessors have been called on to endure. The most unanimous verdict ever rendered in favor of a public servant by the people of North Carolina, has testified alike to their approbation and their forbearance, and placed me here to renew my stewardship. Surely I have been fortunate and my countrymen have been generous.

Again, I make no new promises, lay down no new principles. The thing that has been is the thing that shall be, God helping me. As I have labored so will I labor, for the renown and substantial good of the people who have trusted me. The principles involved by my public acts in the past, shall continue to guide me in the future. Elected without regard to party, I shall endeavor to know no man after the manner of partisans, except in so far as it may become necessary to distinguish between those who would forward and those who would thwart my principles and aims. My friends shall be the friends of my country; my foes shall be my country's enemies. But as the difficulties of my position are still greater than when I first assumed its duties, as the darkness which first obscures the Statesman's path is still blacker than before, I can but sincerely hope that your charity may increase accordingly. No living man could hope to avoid censure in times like these, with issues of life and death pressing upon his hands from which he may not, dare not shrink. I trust, however, in the reflecting generosity of those who placed me under these heavy burdens. So long as they will believe that I am patriotic, that I am sincerely and in singleness of heart devoted to the land of my birth and of my unchangeable love, so long shall my path be smoothed and my labors lightened by that spirit which hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Should I live to meet, at the close of this tempestuous and troubled period of office upon which I am now entering, the same meed of approbation as that with which the passing one has been honored, then, indeed, shall I be satisfied that God has been with me, and judged me to be useful to my country in the darkest hour of her history. Events are with Him. Let us, let all men, exert our utmost strength for the honor and independence of our country.

There is one great danger against which I earnestly pray our people to be warned. Division, distraction, division of sentiment and aim, leading to civil feuds, domestic violence and political death. If crushed by overwhelming numbers on the field of battle, we are guiltless of the unavoidable result. But no one surely could, if we will, internal violence and self destruction. There is no greater enemy to his country and of his race than him who would foment our passions to this end. Let all of our movements, whether of peace or war, hold solid column; our people at home as well as our brothers at the front, standing IN LINE OF BATTLE, FACING ONE WAY AND FOREVER! Then victory is not only doubly assured but thrice glorious, and defeat will be robbed of half its calamities.

A dispatch from the Private Secretary of the President, to a gentleman in Augusta, on the 21st, states that the health of President Davis was fully restored.

WAR NEWS.

NORTH CAROLINA.

THE ARMY OF WILMINGTON.

(From the Carolinian of Tuesday.)

FROM THE POINT.

SUNDAY, Dec. 25.—Early in the day the fleet opened fire again upon Fort Fisher. The report of their heavy guns was distinctly audible in the city. Fort Fisher has thus far reserved her fire waiting for the opportunity that they all so earnestly wish for—close quarters. The Fort thus far remains intact, not having yet been injured at any material point.

LANDING OF THE ENEMY—CAPTURE OF BATTERY ANDERSON.

Between three and four o'clock in the afternoon a regiment of the enemy succeeded in landing near Battery Anderson, a small two gun work situate about 3½ miles north of Fort Fisher and about a mile and a half from Sugar Loaf, on the Cape Fear river. Gen. Kirkland is stationed at the latter place, and, we learn, is expected to attack the enemy. Battery Anderson was garrisoned by all or a portion of Captain Southerland's company of 10th N. C. Troops, who were captured by the enemy. The work itself is of no importance, but the position gained may eventually give us trouble if not recovered by us. Should they be able to hold this point they may eventually land sufficient force to command the neck of land lying between the Cape Fear and the Lecob, in the rear of Fort Fisher. Steps have doubtless been taken ere this to drive the enemy off.

LATER.

We have been unable to gain anything of an official character up to this hour, (9½ p. m.,) except that the enemy have landed three brigades at Battery Anderson and were still landing at last accounts.

Gen. Kirkland has been engaged with them during the evening and night. The darkness of the night will be favorable to their movements, and we expect that by morning they will have landed a heavy force at that point.

MONDAY, Dec. 26.—Very little firing can be heard to-day, and but little news is obtainable from below. We understood semi-officially that an attack was made upon Fort Fisher by the enemy's land force, which was repulsed with heavy loss to the enemy. In confirmation of this, General Kirkland telegraphs that during last night he heard heavy musketry firing in the direction of Fort Fisher, and soon afterwards great cheering on the part of the garrison.—Everything has been hurried to the front, and it is expected that there will be hot work there to-day. Gov. Vance and Gen. Bragg are at the front. The gallant Whiting commands at Fort Fisher. We expect further news during the afternoon, as communication with Fisher has been re-established.

LATER.

A Yankee Lieutenant, captured by our forces, says that he belongs to 142d New York Infantry, Curtis' Brigade, Ames' Division. This is the Division that landed near Sugar Loaf on yesterday. It is said to be composed of three brigades of four regiments each. It is a portion of Butler's corps, said to be the twenty-fourth (we presume one of their consolidated corps) Butler has not yet landed. Weitzel, he says, commands a negro corps, not yet on shore. The whole force is commanded by Butler. No additional news has been received up to this writing, 6 o'clock, P. M., but we understand that fighting had been going on at intervals all day.—Communication has been re-established with Fort Fisher, on the left bank of the river. Everything is going on well. Wilmington is yet safe. Gen. Bragg telegraphs that there is no cause for alarm. The enemy have as yet gained no advantage, and by this hour to-morrow evening, we think matters will look still more favorable.

We learn that the enemy's fleet suffered severely in the bombardment of Sunday. Four gunboats were disabled. Prisoners report the loss of two gunboats on the Rappahannock.

THE VERY LATEST.

10 o'clock, P. M.—General Bragg telegraphs that the enemy are busily engaged fortifying their position on the beach near where they landed. Everything looks brighter and more cheerful than on yesterday. Heavy firing commenced at 7 o'clock last night and continued at intervals during the night.

EXTRA JUNIOR RESERVES.

A little company of boys from ten to fifteen years of age reported on yesterday to General Holmes, for duty, armed and equipped for the field. The General thinking them too young, declined their services, upon which they informed him that they were going to the front at all hazards. Gallant little fellows. It shows the proper spirit. We learn that they are to be sent in charge of Yankee prisoners to-morrow.

Capt. Wm. M. Parker, connected with the State Salt Works, we regret to learn, was captured near Sugar Loaf on Sabbath, while in charge of a small wagon train conveying stores to our troops.

We are informed that the repulse of the storming party that attempted to capture Fort Fisher on Sunday night, is due in part to the gallantry of our Junior Reserves. God bless the boys—may they long live to reap the fruits of their gallant conduct.

GEORGIA.

THE FEDERALS IN SAVANNAH.

We have Augusta papers as late as Sunday the 25th. Of the condition of affairs at Savannah the Chronicle & Sentinel says:

A gentleman arrived in our city Saturday who left Sivannah on Wednesday. Everything was quiet up to that time.

Gen. Slocum marched in on Wednesday morning at the head of about three hundred men and posted guards around to protect the property.

No outrages had been committed.

It is thought that General Sherman will not permit his army to go into the city.

It is said that Sherman intends to request all residents to take the oath of allegiance. Those who do so, will be allowed to remain, and their property will be respected. Those who refuse to do so will be compelled to leave, and their property will be confiscated.

It was thought by some that the rice and cotton stored in the city would be taken possession of in the name of the United States Government, and receipts given therefor.

The Charleston Courier of Friday learns from an officer that all our field artillery, ammunition and provisions were brought out safely in the evacuation of Savannah. All the trunnions and carriages of the seige guns were destroyed and the guns spiked. The grain crops on the plantations along the road between Savannah and Hardeeville were destroyed by our troops. The city was surrendered by Mayor Arnold after the departure of our troops Tuesday. The evacuation was accomplished in good order, and without the loss of a man. A small force of Yankee cavalry is reported this side of the Savannah river. All was quiet along our lines yesterday.

The Courier in alluding to the fall of Fort McAllister last Saturday stated that 700 of our troops were captured along with it. The Courier of Wednesday makes up the following injunction:

We learn from an officer since that the garrison consisted of parts of three companies, and numbered all told, but one hundred and fifty men.

In connection with another error that has found its way into the newspapers, we would state that Fort McAllister and Genesis Point are one and the same place, the former having been built on the latter, which is the extreme of mainland on the South bank of the Great Ogeechee.

DEMORALIZATION IN UPPER GEORGIA.

A correspondent of the Chronicle & Sentinel, writing from Atlanta on the 13th, says:

Previous to leaving this city, the Yankees sent out written invitations to the people living in the counties surrounding it to come in and get rebs at cheap rates in any quantity.

The people, however, did not accept the invitation at that time. But soon after the Yankees left, the country people flocked by scores from all parts of the country, some coming over one hundred miles. Every description of vehicle, drawn by mules, horses, stallions, jacks, jennies, oxen, buffaloes, etc., could be seen upon the streets. The scene beggars description.

Iron, salt, bacon, flour, sugar, coffee, hides, and everything else left by the Yankees were unceremoniously dispatched in wagons and cars and carried off.

But our country friends did not stop at that. They entered the dwelling houses of those absent and gutted them of all their furniture. One lady who left her house for a few hours to attend to pressing business, was astonished to find on her return, all of her furniture and wearing apparel gone.

Fully one hundred and fifty pianos were carried off by the hoosiers, many of whom were unused to any "concord of sweet sounds" save that produced by a jewsharp or fiddle. One of them, an illiterate backwoodsman, who resided in an humble hut, ten by twelve, was seen carrying out a magnificent piano in a small cart drawn by a two year old bullock.

A venerable dame was observed trying to haul into a cart a fine piano by means of a rope attached to the legs. When asked what she was doing, she replied that she had found a nity nice table in thar, and was trying to get it in her kart.

One man alone carried off over $50,000 worth of dry hides. Steps have been taken to secure all the articles carried off as well as the offenders. Already much property has been recovered.

SYNOPSIS OF THE REVENUE LAW.

An ad valorem tax of one per cent. is levied for the support of the State government, the payment of its debts, &c., upon the assessed cash value of the following subjects on the last day of April, 1865, to wit:

1. Real estate in this State; Provided, that where property has been wholly or in part destroyed since that time, the value is to be fixed by the owner, agent or attorney, on oath; and in case the tax-taker is dissatisfied, two freeholders are to decide the value, and if they disagree a third one is to be selected by them, and their decision is to be final.

2. All slaves, (except such as the county court may exempt,) the value of said slaves to be ascertained by the same persons who ascertain the value of lands.

3. Money due from solvent debtors, or on hand, or on deposit with individuals, or in the banks, or other corporations: Provided, that Confederate and State Treasury notes and coupons past due, of the bonds of any State, or corporation, except coupons on bonds of the State issued prior to Feb. 23, 1861, shall be considered money, and, Provided, that the person listing the money on hand and at interest shall be allowed to deduct debts owing by him as principal, and also as surety where the principal is insolvent.

4. Money invested in manufacturing and steamboat corporations, or companies, according to the shares, as fixed by the charter, if the shares be in a corporation, and if there be no incorporation, then upon the amount invested: money invested in State bonds issued since the 23d of Feb., 1861: money invested in county bonds, or bonds of incorporated towns; and also in every species of trade and traffic, not otherwise taxed.

5. Household and kitchen furniture above the value of $300, except articles specifically taxed.

6. All cotton and naval stores and tobacco except owned by the producer, or been purchased by the owner for his own use, or that of his family or dependants: and also such cotton as may have been purchased by any person or corporation for the purpose of manufacturing: Provided, that no more cotton held by a manufacturer shall be exempt than is needed for the consumption of one year.

SEC. 2. The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

All lands or other property belonging to the Confederate States, or this State, or to any county in this State, or to the University, Colleges, or other institutions of learning; all town halls, market houses, public squares, &c.; mechanical and farming tools, books, cannon, arms, &c.

Property taxed more than one per cent. not to be liable to the tax of one per cent., but to be listed separately.

On every dollar of nett dividend or profit, not previously listed, declared, received, or due, on or before April 1st, in each year upon money or capital invested in shares in the Bank of Washington, Merchants' Bank, Bank of Wadesboro', Bank of Fayetteville, Commercial Bank, Bank of North Carolina, Bank of Charlotte, and the Bank of Yanceyville, a tax of eight (8) cents, and to be exempt from county tax. Upon Confederate and corporation bonds, not otherwise taxed, one-sixth of the interest annually accruing thereon. Stock or interest held in all corporations or business to be listed with the other individual property.

Taxes on all property listed to be paid to the Sheriff. (Schedule A.) Account of unlisted property to be rendered to the Sheriff on oath. (Schedule B.)

County Courts to fix pay of takers of tax lists.—Comptroller to furnish printed lists.

SCHEDULE A.

The following subjects to be listed, in addition to those already mentioned: (1) Every taxable poll $3; but soldiers to be exempt, whether in the service of the State or the Confederate States. (2) Toll-gates, turnpikes and ferries, six per cent. on amount of receipts; and on keepers of houses of entertainment, whose annual receipts amount to $300 or more, a tax of three per cent. (3) Every gate permitted to be erected across a highway $50. (4) Note shavers, &c., to list their profits and pay a tax of twenty per cent. upon the same, in addition to the tax imposed upon the interest they may receive upon such notes, &c.,—no deductions to be made on account of any losses sustained. (5) Persons engaged in buying and selling slaves, five per cent. on amount of purchases. (6) Persons not regular dealers, but who buy slaves to sell again, two per cent. on amount of purchases. (7) Pleasure carriages, over the value of $50, two and a half per cent. on the value. Studs and jacks $15 each, or the highest price for the season for one mare. (8) Gold and silver plate, plated ware, jewelry, &c., worn by males, if over $30 in value, two and a half per cent. (9) Watches, except those worn by soldiers, two and a half per cent. on the value. Every harp $5. Every piano $4. Every gold headed cane $4. Every silver headed cane $2. (10) Two and a half per cent. on the receipts of surgeons, dentists, physicians, lawyers, portrait painters, daguerreans, artists, commission merchants, factors, produce brokers, and auctioneers, when such receipts amount to $1000; and on all other persons, except Judges, the Governor, and military officers, whose wages, fees, salaries or perquisites amount to $1000, one per cent. (11) On every dog, not under eight months old, $3 50, provided, two dogs are exempted for every head of a family, and one dog for any person not the head of a family. (12) "Dead-heads" on railroads five cents per mile. (13) Brandy distillers for themselves, and those having brandy distilled, 50 cents per gallon. (14) On liquors brought from beyond the State for sale, 40 per cent. on the profits. Liquors bought in the State for sale, 15 per cent. on the profits. (15) On dividends and profits five per cent. On profits annually made in buying and selling, or in the manufacture of cotton or woolen goods, and leather or articles made of leather, iron, tobacco, and in the making of salt where such profits are equal to $10,000, a tax of eight per cent.; and if equal to $20,000, a tax of twelve per cent.; and if equal to $30,000, a tax of fifteen per cent. (16,17,18,19,20) On collateral descents from two to six per cent., according to consanguinity.

SCHEDULE B.

SUBJECTS TAXED WITHOUT BEING LISTED.

(1) Circus riders, exhibitions of animals, &c., $200 for each county. Side shows, $50 for each county. (2) Stage and theatrical players, &c., except amateur performers, $500 for each county. (3) Itinerant singers, &c., $25 for each county. (4) Every insurance company incorporated out of the State, three per cent. upon its gross receipts. (5) Every agency of a bank incorporated out of the State $1,000. (6) Every broker, private banker, agent for a foreign banker or broker, &c., twenty five per cent. upon his profits. (7) Every express company 20 per cent. on gross receipts. The same on Railroad Expresses.—Both exempt from county taxes. (8) Every public billiard table $1,000. Every private one $100.—Every bagatelle or pedestrie table $100. (9) Every public bowling alley $200. Every private one $25. (10) Every livery stable, or place where horses are kept for hire $50. (11) Retail license $1,000. Each retailer, in addition, to list and pay as provided in Schedule A. (12) Every non-resident who purchases any slave, corn, pork, bacon or spirituous liquors, shall immediately become liable to pay a tax of two per cent., and on neglect or failure to pay the tax shall forfeit and pay $1,000. (13) Non residents to pay two per cent. on the amount of each slave brought into the State and sold. (14) All persons buying or selling slaves to be considered non-residents until the contrary is shown. (15) $5 per pack on playing cards sold. (16) On sales of vehicles manufactured out of the State, two and a half per cent. (17) On auctioneers five per cent. on gross amount of sales, the same not to be subject to county tax. Sales made by itinerant traders or non-residents ten per cent.
